

Support for children and young people

We know that for many children and young people are made particularly vulnerable by the closure of schools. Church settings and youth workers are working hard to put plans in place to stay in contact with young people during the Coronavirus epidemic.

We will put more advice here shortly. Childline have updated their webpage with information for children and young people about coronavirus.