

Parish Transition Facilitation Officer

Full time, 2 years fixed-term

Salary: £30,000

Do you have facilitation skills and experience, with good self-reflective skills?

Do you have the ability to synthesise a group's ideas into accurate and succinct written documentation?

Are you a collaborative colleague, excellent communicator and relationship-builder?

...then we want to hear from you, and consider your application to work within our team as we enable churches to form new Minster Communities across our diocese.

You will act as a co-facilitator within the process of forming Minster Communities in the Diocese of Leicester, through Christian discernment and provide facilitation support and challenge to forming Minster Communities as they write their Minster Community proposals alongside undertaking qualitative and quantitative data analysis

This post is funded through a grant from the Strategic Mission and Ministry Investment Board.

For an informal conversation about the role contact Beth Cluer, Senior Parish Transition Officer and Facilitation Lead, beth.cluer@leicestercofe.org

We encourage applications from UK Minority Ethnic / Global Majority Heritage candidates, who are currently under-represented in the organisation.

Closing date: 27th August

Interview date: 2nd September

Application pack can be found on the diocesan website:
